Director's Notes:

No other author has captured a child's imagination in the way Roald Dahl does. Charlie is a lovable hero and Willy Wonka is a fantastic candyman. Their interactions with the 'Golden Ticket' winners creates a hilarious and entertaining story. What a treat to be able to dive into this story and live in a candy factory for a week. Don't we all dream of having all the candy and chocolate we could ever want? These wonderful children actors and singers have spent six days practicing in order to present this show tonight. This is the third summer that the Steed family has put on a play in Waterton. The mothers of these children have all had an important role in making the show a success, none of it could have happened without a combined effort. Thank you for supporting our play, and enjoy the show!
